"PROGRESS!"-" PROGRESS!"

THIS IS LIBERTY

Oh, how they raved and snorted over the proffigacy, the extravagance, the extortion and see. The balevon days return with the election of the soldier-statesman. The er of low taxes, close accounts and vareful expenditures, dawns with the imanguration of the incorruptible Galena eigar-stump. Honesty and economy revise at the bugle-blus of the "great captain." The golden age rolls back upon us, as the signal gans boom forth to the world the proud tidings, that "Ulysses the Pure" is President of the New Republic! Yes, yes! Retreachmest, reform, frugality and integrity, honesty, economy and ten legious of other virtue were to roost in the National Capitol, the White House and the Treasury, from the very hour that the drunken ex-wood-haufe and watermelon-peddler, of St. Louis-the whisky-sonked ex-paramour of a Dicare squaw, in the mountains of California-the besotted ex-scraper of old hides, in a Sucker tannery-the tipsy jig-dancer and niggermillennial perfections were to reign supreme and Bible-kissings, in the chair of Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe! No more extravagance. No more swindling, No more leakage, shrinkage, bribage or stenlage. No more embezziements, detail entions, mistakes or inaccuracies of a million day sun, in the Great Sahara. All pure a mud, on the brink of some pig-pen swill tub. Honesty immuculate, uprightness unswervable, and economy unapproached and anapproachable, were to rule in every department of government! Such were their professions - And, mirabile dietu, there wer donkeys long-eared enough to believe them. Ha! ha! ho! ho! tee-hee! One year of the 'hero-president's' model 'economy" has passed, and the bills been paid. And here, according to their own "official reports," after all the lying, dodging, whittling down and hiding, they can The Trap Sprung, and Two More Vic-

Spent-gone-vamoused-absquatulatedin one year! How's that for ''economy?' Look at it! Think of it! Four handred and eleven million, two hundred and fifty-fivthousand, four hundred and seventy-sever dollars, and sixty-three cents! One year's expenditures! Here you poor devil-you miserable drudge-you who have to rise beand saw, with plow and hoe and rake, till darkness shuts your field or shop or bench does ache? What though you are weary enough to fly to the grave, as a restingplace? There's no time for you to rest. Work! work! work! is your portion, and the portion of your children after you! Take out your pencil, and cipher away.

$111,255,177 63. That much spent in one year. Put the population of the whole country at 40,000, 000; and that is TEN DOLLARS AND TWENTY RIGHT CENTS a year, for every man, woman and child, pauper, idiot and criminal, from Maine to California! Direct government taxation! Oh, but you have no property. and consequently pay no tax? Ah, indeed? Then why is it, that you pay thirty cents a pound for your coffee, white just one mile out of the united States, in Canada, it sells at ten and twelve cents? Why do you pay sixteen to twenty cents a pound for your sugar, while the Canadian laborer, with only the Detroit or St. Lawrence river to divide him from you, pays but six to eight cents? Eh? Why does a common cassimere coat cost you eighteen dollars, while just in sight Canadian merchants sell them at seven and eight dollars? Don't you know its the "duty" that our Yankee masters levy on all importations, that makes the difference? If you don't you ought to. But let's figure a little more.
